FORMER ST. FRANCOIS COUNTY CITIZEN PASSES AWAY NEAR CHARLESTON

Mrs. Ella B. (Vance) Dalton died at her home at Deventer in Mississippi county of typhoid fever last Saturday, September 18, 1915, aged 52 years, 6 months and 26 days.

She was born in Ste. Genevieve county, Mo., taught school for 31 years in this, Ste. Genevieve and Mississippi counties; and had been a reader of The Times for 30 years.

The deceased joined the M. E. Church, South, at Wesley Chapel in 1890, of which she remained a member to her death. Mrs. Dalton leaves, besides a husband, one sister, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, who resides in this county, and two brothers, W. T. and J. H. Vance of Deventer, Mo., and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her departure.

The body was brought here for burial last Monday, and the funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p. m.

by Rev. J. N. Sitton, after which interment was had in the K. P. cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Vance of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Blair Dalton, Walter Dalton, W. T. and J. H. Dalton of Deventer, Mo.

Mrs. Dalton had many friends who are sorry to learn of her sudden demise and The Times joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved in this hour of sorrow.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cayce returned the first of the week from a three-weeks' trip to the Frisco Fair and the West. Mr. Cayce says the electric illumination at the Fair is the finest he ever saw.

Dr. J. B. Robinson returned home Monday from a two-weeks' visit with his brother in Montana. The Doctor was much impressed with the splendid agricultural prospect of that State, but, nevertheless, was glad to get back to Farmington.

Mr. T. C. Highley of Kennett, Mo., passed through this city last Sunday in an auto on his way to East St. Louis to make purchase of a 100 or more feeders. Buck is a hustler and will no doubt make good at his new home in Kennett.

Mr. Phillip Cole left last Sunday for Valparaiso, Ind., where he will enter the law department of the University. Phillip is one of the most industrious young men of our community, and we predict for him a bright future in his chosen profession.

Just received—a car load of Swift's Fertilizer. We also have a good stock of Grass Seeds—prices net cash.—Mell & Phillips, Farmington, Mo.

In its meeting of last Sunday, the St. Paul Lutheran congregation elected the following members to serve on the School Board: D. F. Giessing, Chas. Westmeyer, Chas. Kollmeyer. The School Board has engaged the services of Miss Marie Thomsen, one of last spring's Farmington High School graduates, for the Primary department of the Lutheran day school.

Mr. Lott Griffin, a prosperous farmer just Southeast of town, last week brought to the Times office three apples weighing more than a pound each. The circumference of each apple was nearly 15 inches, all ranging over 14 inches. These apples are known as the Pound apple, and Mr. Griffin states that the trees in his orchard of this variety were well filled, and the size of the apples was uniformly the same.

Mr. Miller Corman transacted business in St. Louis the first week's visit in St. Louis.
